现场采样相片	 A photograph showing two men in a factory setting. One man, wearing a grey t-shirt and a cap, is operating a large industrial machine with a control panel featuring several buttons and a small screen displaying 'hp'. The other man, wearing a light blue shirt, stands beside him, observing. The machine has a large sheet of paper or material being processed. The background shows shelves and other equipment typical of a printing or manufacturing facility.
现场测量相片	 A photograph taken from a doorway into a factory floor. Two men are visible. One man, wearing a green polo shirt and a face mask, is standing near a large industrial machine, possibly a press or a folder, and appears to be adjusting or monitoring it. The other man, wearing a light blue shirt, is standing further back, holding a long measuring tape and extending it towards the machine. The background shows more of the factory environment, including another person working at a desk and various pieces of equipment.
